April 1, 1963

We have attempted to include in this directory all churches that are known in the city. We have also included those Vigo County churches outside the city which are members of the local council. Churches of the Terre Haute Area Council of Churches are marked with an asterisk.

R. J. Rogers M.D.
president

Mrs. Kay Thomson
executive secretary

The Terre Haute Area Council of Churches is composed of churches confessing Jesus Christ as Divine Lord and Savior working together to express their common spirit and purpose.

T. H. Trib. 10/30/68

Publication of a 1968-1969 Church Directory of Vigo County was announced Tuesday by the Terre Haute Area Council of Churches. The Rev. Maurice LeFevre, president of the council's board of directors, said the directory which lists 188 churches as of Sept. 15, was published as a community service through the courtesy the the Terre Haute Clearing House Association.

The Rev. John Elford, administrator of St. Patrick's Parish, commended council officials on the directory, observing that it rendered a valuable service to the community with the listing of churches of all faiths, their pastors, the campus ministers and the chaplains serving the U. S. Penitentiary.

Mrs. Kay Thomson, acting executive secretary and responsible for preparation of the directory, explained how it would be distributed. Chief user, according to Mrs. Thomson, is the Chamber of Commerce, which includes the directory in mailings to business and industrial leaders seeking information about the community. Many new residents receive the directory from Welcome Wagon hostesses. All clergymen in the county have already received copies by mail.

Hotels and motels in the area will be provided directories for their guests. Campus ministers will have copies available for students. They will also be available to any university departments heads who wish them. In addition the directory will be on display and copies available upon request at the main library and the branches at North Plaza, Meadows Shopping Center, Southland and West Terre Haute.

The first directory here, according to Rev. LeFevre, was published in 1963 and included about 127 churches in Terre Haute, West Terre Haute and rural communities in Vigo County. In succeeding years an attempt has been made to include every church in the entire county with 167 listed in the 1966-67 edition. The present directory in addition to 188 churches names over 200 clergymen along with telephone numbers and addresses of churches and ministers.

The directory groups churches according to major religious faiths—Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Protestant and Jewish. Protestant churches are listed under denominational headings and in other categories such as Missions, Pentecostals and others, which includes a variety of Christian churches affiliated with less well known denominations. The other category also includes such groups as Bahai's, Spiritualist churches, Jehovah's Witnesses and many non-denominational independent churches.

New denominational headings are United Methodist reflecting the merger of Evangelical United Brethren and Methodist denominations, and Wesleyan which includes former Pilgrim Holiness and Wesleyan Methodist denominations.

The Greater Terre Haute Church Federation has as its purpose the coordination of the ministries of the churches of this area. Through cooperative work many services can be provided to the community which otherwise would not be possible.

This directory is an example of one such service. We hope that the information included here will be of interest and assistance to you. We have attempted to include names, addresses, and telephone numbers for all area religious groups. Hours for worship and other more specific information is available in the local Saturday newspapers.

THE GREATER TERRE HAUTE CHURCH FEDERATION. INC.
And WTWO PRESENT

FAITH TO LIVE BY—A daily five-minute devotional which starts each broadcast day at approximately 6:45 a.m. Guests are local clergy. Coordinator of the program is the Reverend Stephen Bull.

RELIGIOUS NEWS AND VIEWS—a Sunday morning (6:45) presentation of new developments in religion and topics of interest to viewers in the local area. Mrs. Judy Warner assists in the coordination and hosting of the show.

RELIGIOUS HERITAGE—a 30-minute Sunday interview program presenting comments by area religious and civic leaders on their work and views. Producer and host is the Reverend John Beitans. Consult TV listings for the time of this broadcast.

Meetings

The Greater Terre Haute Church Federation, Inc., Board of Directors meets the third Tuesday evening of each month (with occasional exceptions). Guests are welcome, and information regarding time and place can be obtained by calling 235-7498. Dr. Robert R. Brown is president of the organization.

The Vigo County Clergy Association meets the third Wednesday noon of each month. All clergy are invited to attend. Information may be obtained by calling the president, Rev. Paul Brink, 232-5793.

Purpose

The Greater Terre Haute Church Federation has as its purpose the coordination of the ministries of the churches of this area. Through cooperative work many services can be provided to the community which otherwise would not be possible.

This directory is an example of one such service. We hope that the information included here will be of interest and assistance to you. We have attempted to include names, addresses, and telephone numbers for all area religious groups. Hours for worship and other more specific information is available in the local Saturday newspapers.

THE LAW OF LOVE

"Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."(Romans 13:10). Love, as we are told in this verse, is the fulfilling of the law. He who walks in love will wrong neither God nor his neighbor, but will manifest active affection to both. Such love is foreign to the heart of the natural man. When, of old, God commanded that all men should love Him with the whole heart, mind, and strength and one's neighbor as himself, it was demanding of selfish, unregenerate man something which he could not do. Therefore the law revealed the sinfulness and helplessness of all men after the flesh. "By the law is the knowledge of sin" (Romans 3:20). No one was ever justified by obedience to the Law, holy, just, and good as it is. But when the convicted sinner flees to Christ for salvation, and, trusting Him, is born again of the Spirit and the Word (John 3:6 and Peter 1:23-25), the love of God is shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Spirit, who comes to dwell in all who believe (Romans 5:5). The new nature, communicated to all who became part of the new creation, is like God, who gives it, and God is love. Therefore we love, because He first loved us(I John 4:11).

Yet we still have the old corrupt nature to contend with, and because of this we ofttimes fail to manifest love for God and our neighbors as we should. Hence the many exhortations in the Word bidding us "Walk in love" (Eph. 5:2) and to love one another even as God has so loved us (I John 4:11).

A harsh, unkind, unloving spirit either bespeaks one who has never been converted at all, or shows that he who manifests such a disposition is out of fellowship with God and walking in the flesh instead of in the Spirit (Galatians 5:16).If we live in communion with the Father and the Son we shall be characterized by that love which covers a multitude of sins (I peter 4:8 and James 5:20). It is not that we will cover our own sins, but those of others; for the love "rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth" (I Cor. 13:6).

Love begets love. Love responds to love. When one loves his neighbor, there will not only be the refraining from working evil, but the positive side also — that of doing him good. Love expresses itself in deeds, in gifts, in sacrifices. The true Christian man in human life is the man who with the Scriptures open before him as his informant and his guide, while the Lord Jesus dwells in his heart by faith as his REASON and his POWER, forgets himself in a work for others, persistent to the end, by the love which, whatever else it does, knows how to sympathize and serve.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE GREATER TERRE HAUTE CHURCH FEDERATION, INC.

PURPOSE

According to the Church Federation's constitution, the purposes of the Federation are:

"1) To manifest our common loyalty to God as known through Jesus Christ and our commitment to his mission in our community.

2) To provide an agency through which the churches can work together in various areas of common concern.

3) To identify community needs which are of concern to the churches, and to find ways in which the churches can act to meet those needs.

4) To represent the churches to the community and the community to the churches.

5) To cooperate with and sustain member churches in the work in the community.

6) To cooperate with other groups which have similar purposes."

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Church Federation is open to any congregation in the Vigo County/Greater Terre Haute area, which is in general agreement with the purposes of the Foundation, and which will support the work of the Federation by financial or other support. Member congregations are entitled to send five voting delegates to the General Assembly meetings (usually about three meetings a year). Day to day business of the Federation is carried on by the Board of Directors, a body of fifteen, one third of whom are elected by the delegates each year.

FUNCTIONS

At the present time, four main program units function to develop the program of the Church Federation. The Social Ministries Committee develops many programs for the community, enabling the churches to work together in ways that no single local church could effectively take to show Christ's compassion in the face of community need. The Ecumenical Affairs group sponsors many events which enable the churches to get together and discover our unity in our common Lord, such as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity service, the Good Friday community service, etc. The Personal Living Committee deals mainly with developing things like workshops in personal growth and family life, spirituality, prayer, and so forth. The (Church) Life and Work Committee centers on programs that benefit local churches in developing their capacity to do ministry.

SUPPORT

Financial support for the work of the Church Federation comes from member congregations, however, interested organizations and individuals also help support the Federation's work. Money raised by the Federation for programs such as UNICEF, CROP, etc., is sent to these ministries directly. None of this money underwrites the work of the Federation. Contributions may be sent to the Treasurer, Greater Terre Haute Church Federation, P.O. Box 356, T.H., IN. 47808.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE GREATER TERRE HAUTE CHURCH FEDERATION, INC.

PURPOSES

According to the Church Federation's constitution, the purposes of the organization are:

1) To manifest our common loyalty to God as known through Jesus Christ and our commitment to his mission in our community.

2) To provide an agency through which churches may work together in various areas of common concern.

3) To identify community needs which are of concern to the churches, and to find ways in which the churches can act to meet those needs.

4) To represent the churches to the community and the community to the churches.

5) To cooperate with and sustain member churches in their work in the community.

6) To cooperate with other groups which have similar purposes.

Membership

Membership in the Church Federation is open to any Christian congregation, parish, or organized fellowship in the Greater Terre Haute/Vigo County area which is in general agreement with the purposes of the Federation and which will support its work financially or by other means. Member congregations are entitled to send five voting delegates to the General Assembly meeting. The day to day business of the Federation is conducted by the Board of Directors, a body of fifteen people, one-third of whom are elected by the delegates each year. The Board of Directors meets the third Wednesday of each month at 12:00 noon, usually at the Vigo County Public Library. All meetings of the General Assembly and Board of Directors are open to the public.

Functions

The functions of the Church Federation are:

1) To promote programs that benefit needy people in the community, such as the Samaritan Food Project.

2) To organize activities where churches may come together and discover our oneness in the Lord, such as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity service, the Good Friday community worship, and others.

3) To encourage personal growth and development by sponsoring workshops in such areas as family life, personal spirituality, and prayer and producing the daily television meditation program, Faith to Live By, which is run on a local station.

4) To further the ministry of the local churches in our community through such means as the weekly Religious Heritage television program and advertising the activities of the various congregations.

Support

The Church Federation is an all-volunteer organization. Financial support for its work comes from member congregations, interested organizations, and individuals. Inquiries and contributions may be sent to the Greater Terre Haute Church Federation, P.O. Box 356, Terre Haute, IN 47808.

Churches In The Greater Terre Haute Area

The following has been compiled by the Church Federation to assist residents and visitors to our community in finding the church of their choice. Inclusion in the list does not imply membership in or support of the Church Federation by an individual congregation. Given is the location and mailing address of the church. The telephone number is that within the building or of a contact person who can supply information about the times of services and other activities.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE GREATER TERRE HAUTE CHURCH FEDERATION, INC.

PURPOSES

According to the Church Federation's constitution, the purposes of the organization are:

1) To manifest our common loyalty to God as known through Jesus Christ and our commitment to his mission in our community.

2) To provide an agency through which the churches can work together in various areas of common concern.

3) To identify community needs which are of concern to the churches, and to find ways in which the churches can act to meet those needs.

4) To represent the churches to the community and the community to the churches.

5) To cooperate with and sustain member churches in the work in the community.

6) To cooperate with other groups which have similar purposes.

FUNCTIONS

The functions of the Church Federation are:

1) To promote programs that benefit needy people in the community, such as the Samaritan Food Project.

2) To organize activities where churches may come together and discover our oneness in the Lord, such as the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity service, the Good Friday community worship, and others.

3) To encourage personal growth and development by sponsoring workshops in such areas as family life, personal spirituality, and prayer and producing the daily television meditation program, Faith to Live By, which is run on a local station.

4) To further the ministry of the local churches in our community through such means as the weekly Religious Heritage television program and advertising the activities of the various congregations.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Church Federation is open to any congregation in the Vigo County/Greater Terre Haute area which is in general agreement with the purposes of the Federation and which will support its work financially or by other means. Member congregations are entitled to send five voting delegates to the General Assembly meeting. The day to day business of the Federation is conducted by the Board of Directors, a body of fifteen people, one-third of whom are elected by the delegates each year. The Board of Directors meets the third Wednesday of each month at 12:00 noon, usually at the Vigo County Public Library. All meetings of the General Assembly and Board of Directors are open to the public.

SUPPORT

The Church Federation is an all-volunteer organization. Financial support for its work comes from member congregations, interested organizations, and individuals. Inquiries and contributions may be sent to the Greater Terre Haute Church Federation, P.O. Box 356, Terre Haute, IN 47808.

CHURCHES AND RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS IN TERRE HAUTE AND VIGO COUNTY, INDIANA

The following has been compiled by the Church Federation to assist residents and visitors to our community in finding the church of their choice. Inclusion in the list does not in any way imply membership in or support of the Church Federation by an individual congregation. Given is the location and mailing address of the church. The number in parentheses is the last two numbers of the 47800 zip code used in Vigo County.
